

Issue 13 25th June 2008—Tony Keys

Tulloch Pokolbin Hunter Valley Dry Red 2006:

An interesting wine...it entered on the sweet side and was all over the place, but benefited from decanting. Good earthy Hunter style with persistence of flavour that just continues, complete with a wonderfully long aftertaste.

91 points / outstanding value. There are plenty of others out there of lesser quality and greater price.