

2009 JAMES HALLIDAY AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION

TULLOCH WINES ★★★★★

5 Star rating for the 3rd consecutive year

Named in 'Best Wineries of the Region' Hunter Valley

★★★★★ "Outstanding winery capable of producing wine of very high quality, and did so this year."

"The return of the classic Dry Red and Private Bin Dry Red Labels brings back memories of the great wines of the 1950's and 60's, and is a sign of the continuing resurgence of this brand," James Halliday.

RATING 94 POINTS

E.M. Limited Release Chardonnay 2006

"Bright green-yellow; elegant and restrained, but with excellent focus to the nectarine and white peach fruit; subtle oak." Drinking to 2011

Pokolbin Dry Red Private Bin 2006

"A classy young Hunter Shiraz with decades of development in front of it, still showing primary black fruits; good oak and tannin support for the long, intense palate." Drinking to 2026

RATING 93 POINTS

Julia Limited Release Semillon 2006

"A classic young Hunter Semillon taking the first few steps along an extended development pathway; lemon, grass and slate flavours; certain improvement." Drinking to 2016

RATING 90 POINTS

Cellar Door Release Petit Verdot 2006

"Usual deep colour: firm, concise blackcurrant and spice characters on both bouquet and palate; good structure; shades of the 1930 Wyndham Estate Cabernet Petit Verdot." Drinking to 2015

Vineyard Selection Verdelho 2007

"Has better than average depth to the appealing fruit salad flavours and offsetting lemony acidity." Drinking to 2011

Pokolbin Dry Red Shiraz 2006

"Attractive, lively and fresh black cherry and plum plus a touch of blackberry; good length and acidity; will develop regional character with age." Drinking to 2016
